ENGAGEMENT OF NOTED BEAUTY IS BROKEN.

Bourbon county people will be interested in the announcement from New York that Miss Geraldine M. Graham, Santa Barbara, Cal., whose mother was formerly Miss Birdie Pollock, of Paris, has broken her engagement to Whitney Warren, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Warren, of New York and Newport, Mr. Warren, Sr., being a millionaire architect.

Mrs. William Miller Graham, who was noted for her beauty, spent her girlhood in Paris, and has frequently visited friends in Central Kentucky since her marriage to the millionaire from whom she is now separated.

Her daughter, who inherited the beauty which won her mother fame and fortune, was declared by the Prince of Wales on his recent visit to Los Angeles to be "the most beautiful girl in America."

In announcing that the engagement between her daughter and Mr. Warren was at an end, Mrs. Graham said that it was "purely a personal and family matter." Last August it was announced that the wedding would take place in St. Thomas' church, New York, in February. Much interest was taken by society folk of New York, Newport, California and Kentucky in the announcement, as Miss Graham has been very popular since her debut two years ago at a dance which her parents gave at their palatial home in Santa Barbara.

Mr. Warren has been living in New York since he was wounded in the service. When the war was declared in Europe he was preparing for college. He left his studies in 1916 and went to France, where he served with the Norton-Harjes Ambulance corps for six months. He later entered the French army, and afterward the French artillery school at Fontainebleau, where he was commissioned second lieutenant.

For heroic service he received the War Cross, was honored in three citations and was given the Military Medal. He is prominent socially in the East, and is a member of several clubs.
